Still awaiting November and December numbers. Katie Vanis organized the 5th grade Eagles Wings lunch which was provided by Pizza West. She worked with an SJS alumni. Rave reviews from staff. Jenny Condon has held two Parents Day Out events which have been very successful and had waitlists. Next date will be in February and will be Valentine’s Day themed. Look on Facebook and announcements for upcoming events. This is not specifically Home and School sponsored. Kate Kaldenberg presented report on Christmas Cookies. They delivered to 43 neighbors and around 45 businesses. Received a few ‘thank yous’ from businesses who very appreciative. Usually, these businesses are Catholic organizations and places that donate money to the school. Soar raised $129,264.73

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Catholic Christmas Service Project had a lot of participation. Each grade level created ornaments and cards. They delivered to The Servants of Mary convent, Vienna House for retired priests, the hospice house, to the children at Ambassador, and three other memory care facilities. Each resident got a card and an ornament. • Crafting Day was held 12/2. Another Crafting Day will be held March 16th. Email Crystal to sign up or with questions. • School directories were sent out last Friday with the youngest child. Discussion of going back to black and white as to have school directories earlier as was in the past (early October). Timing was not from formatting or being printed in color. The delay was due to data collection issues as well as communication of the data from the office. Price was down to $2.60/directory since more were ordered. These were finished and delivery before Christmas break, but the office was closed leading to the delay. Suggestion of more volunteers next year to help expedite the process. • Samantha presented link to SJS Home & School page
